The Feast of Corpus Christi

On this great feast day in the Church's Liturgical Calendar, countless children around the world will be invited to the table of the Lord and will make their First Holy Communion. But this Feast of Corpus Christi, the Solemnity of the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ—invites all of us to reflect on the abiding presence of Jesus in the Eucharist. It is a day to move from awe to action, challenging us not just to receive the sacrament, but to become what we consume and serve others.

We cannot separate our time at the altar from our time in the community. Jesus modelled self-giving love and commanded us to "do this in memory of me." This means we are called to go out into the world and be nourishment, hope, and compassion for others.
